

Call for Papers AMIS 2023 International Conference

The Faculty of Accounting and Management Information Systems of the Bucharest University of Economic Studies, Romania is organizing the

18th edition of the International Conference
Accounting and Management Information Systems (AMIS 2023)
on June 7-8, 2023
in a face-to-face format

Papers are invited in the broad areas of financial accounting, managerial accounting, accounting education, auditing, financial analysis, and management information systems. Authors are invited to submit theoretical and empirical contributions. All submissions will be double-blind refereed by an international scientific panel.

Submission details

Intending authors are invited to only submit full papers in English by April 1, 2023, via the online submission system of the Conference. Abstracts will not be considered. The outcome of the review process will be communicated to authors by May 1, 2023. Conference participants should register for the conference before May 20, 2023. Early registrations are possible and encouraged. Further information will be available on www.amis.ase.ro as soon as possible.

Conference proceedings

Electronic conference proceedings, containing only the papers presented during the conference, will be submitted to Clarivate Analytics for evaluation for inclusion in the Conference Proceedings Citation Index after the conference. Proceedings of prior editions between 2010 and 2019 have been accepted for inclusion. The proceedings of the subsequent editions (2020 onward) were also submitted for evaluation, which is still pending on account of a large backlog of proceedings being reviewed. Exclusion of presented papers from the conference proceedings is possible, upon author request.

Paper Development Workshop with Accounting in Europe

We invite papers that investigate policy-relevant topics in line with Accounting in Europe's aim and scope to apply for the Paper Development Workshop. Feedback and guidance for the papers considered will be provided in a special workshop during the AMIS 2023 conference. Subject to satisfactory revision, the papers will be published in the Journal.

Publication outlet

An option for fast-track review is given to intending authors at the Journal of Accounting and Management Information Systems (JAMIS). JAMIS is covered and indexed in prestigious international databases and catalogues such as EBSCO and ProQuest, and in various national and university rankings (in France, Poland, Italy). For details regarding the Journal please see www.jamis.ase.ro.

For further queries please visit www.amis.ase.ro regularly and do not hesitate to contact the conference organizers at amis@cig.ase.ro.

We very much look forward to seeing you in June 2023!
